Stop the racist EDL in Cambridge

March and Celebration of Unity and Diversity

18 months ago the English Defence League (EDL), a racist organisation with a record of attacking, amongst others, Muslims, Trade Unionists and students, tried to march through our City. They were met by a massive, diverse, joyous counter protest which united the community and humiliated the racists. Now they plan to return. We want to organise an even bigger demonstration to oppose them.

Called by Cambridge UAF and supported by local and national Trade Unionists, Cambridge Muslim Council, Community Organisations, Councillors, Cambridge Trades Council and Richard Howitt MEP

Saturday 23rd February, assemble 12 noon, Petersfield
(opposite Parkside Pool and Parker's Piece – details tbc, check online for updates)

Speakers * March * Music * Poetry * Art

Bring banners, flags, whistles, friends, or just yourself...
